To: My Father Hector-His son
From: Giderlyn Garcia
December 24,2008

Dear: Denise Tadd

The only thing I want for Christmas is my father Hector to come back home; because I miss him a lot, and I really miss all the fun. We use to had when we use to go to the park and play basket ball, but now we can't do that, because he's not here with me to have all the fun that we had. So, please judge can you find it in your heart for me and my father Hector could be the same family we were.

Every night I think about him and have dreams about all the things we used to do. When I'm in school; in class I think about him. My teacher's asks me, "What's wrong with me?" I just reply, by shaking my head.

I just don't have anything to tell her because I feel so depressed, not having him here, in my life; like a father figure. I have an empty space in my heart no one can replace it but him.

Judge Tadd, it's hard when you know you have a father, but just can't see him and talk to him about guy things like how you want to. Kids asks me, "Where's your father?" I put my head down and replied, "He's incinerated." Then I walk away in tears.

Ms. Tadd, I feel like crying when I daydream. In class, I think about my father, of how much I miss him. The pain causes me to be quiet, to cry in silence. I cry on the inside but not on the outside. I get so much love in school, that teachers call my mom and concern about my unusual behavior; that they want to have conferences about me because it's causing me not to function in class.

Please your Honor, I want my dad home for Christmas, New Years, and all my...

Dear Deniss Itadd,

I am very happy to be writing to you. First of all, I would like to say hello.

My name is Aranza Melo. I am in the 7th grade, and I study in I.S.296. I am an excellent student in school, academically, & physically. In the fifth grade, I received an award to the White House. That time I was happy, cheerful, and full with joy.

My uncle's name is Hector Lima Melo. He is a great, fun, outgoing, and loving uncle. It makes me so sad that he is behind bars. Like I said before, I am a good student. But ever since my uncle went into jail, my grades went down, and my attitude has gone up.

On September 2, my sisters birthday, we entered school. My uncle was in jail, and both of us didn't enter school happily. Isn't it the worst feeling when all your friends are talking about something, and you don't have it? Thats how I feel when my friends and I talk about our family members.

My uncle Hector is the only uncle that I have with me. All of my others uncles are in the Dominican Republic. He is the only uncle that I can give a hug to when I'm sad.

I leave this situation in your hands. (With the help of god!) I only want the best for my uncle. I know he is a good person, and he hasn't done anything big. Please set him free!

Sincerely,

Aranza Melo

Exhibit 8

Dear Deniss Ittad,

Hello I hope your having a great day so far. I am writing to you because of my uncle Hector. My uncle Hector would want the best for me.

My uncle Hector means a lot to me because he was always there for me. To see him in jail makes me sad because he was not there for my dads birthday, and they are brothers. My name is Vanessa Melo next year I am graduating this year. It would be a shame not to have him there with me. When he is around me I feel a sense of pride.

My family has had a really big loss with my uncle in jail. My uncle has a ton of humor. I still have a picture of when I was really small he was holding me in his arms. I still shed a tear or two knowing that he isn't there with me. I love my uncle Hector I hope that this letter let you know how much I love him.

I get to see my beloved uncle from time to time. Like I told you before it hurts me very much to see him in jail. Whenever I am around my uncle we have fun times that always makes me laugh.

Sincerely,
Vanessa Melo

Dear Denis, Papa

My name is Whitney Melo. I am 7 years old. I am in the second grade. I have an uncle. His name is Hector and he is in jail. I love him a lot. I wish he could get out of jail.

I miss my uncle a lot. He is a very good person because he was always there for me. Now he is in jail. Now I am sad, because he is not here anymore. I remember one time, when we went to the park, and he brought me ice cream and a hot dog. In my old house, he used to live on the bottom floor. We lived on the top floor. I could see him everyday.

I have a picture of my old house when I was little. I was sitting on his lap. Me and him were happy. When he wasn't in jail, I had a lot of fun with him. My sister was right. "You never know how much you love someone until they're gone."

I hope that god helps him. I miss him a lot. Please get him out!

Yours Truly,
Whitney
